Your pet's health and happiness is our primary concern. If the animal attendants notice a medical problem they will attempt to contact your emergency number. An emergency contact number MUST be provided upon check-in. The emergency contact person MUST be an adult, capable of making decisions for you regarding your pet's health and able to be reached within the continental U.S. Please note that whomever you choose as your emergency contact they are authorized to make medical decisions for your pet. You will assume all financial responsibilities for approved medical services provided during your pet's stay. Should a life threatening (critical) medical condition occur during their stay and attempts to reach your emergency contact are unsuccessful medical decisions regarding your pets care will be made by the doctor on duty. You will be responsible for all medical charges associated with the management of this event.

We would like to know how to proceed if your dog develops one of the more common medical problems that can arise while boarding. Our primary concern is ensuring your dog's comfort and his/her ability to receive rapid medical treatment should problems occur. The common boarding ailments below describe what initial measures are taken by the staff to remedy the problem. Should your dog not respond to these initial measures, further treatment may be warranted.

Common Boarding Ailments

All animals are boarded, handled or cared for by us without liability on our part for loss or damage from disease, death, fire, injury to persons, other animals or property by said animals, or other unavoidable causes.

Each animal is insured up to $2,000. Each occurrence is insured up to $50,000.

If an animal becomes seriously ill, we will attempt to notify the owner or emergency contact person. In the event the owner does not immediately inform us of desired measures to be taken, or if the state of the animal's health demands immediate action, we reserve the right to have our veterinarians or those within the VetCor network of hospitals administer necessary medical treatments within our discretion or judgment. Such expenses shall be paid for by the owner upon dismissal of the animal.

Some exotic pets are considered prey animals and may become extremely stressed in a boarding environment. Although rare, such stress can lead to death in exotic pets. I understand and assume the risk associated with boarding exotic pets.

If an animal is not picked up within 30 days after the scheduled discharge date, it will be disposed of by us as we see fit. Notice in writing of such intent will be mailed to the owner by registered mail at the address given hereon. The owner shall be held liable for all charges.

We are not responsible for the loss or damage of any belongings, such as blankets or toys that are brought in with the animal.

The owner represents that he/she is the legal owner of said animal and that said animal is not mortgaged in any way. The above mentioned animal(s) has/ have not been exposed to distemper, parvo virus, rabies or kennel cough within the last 30 days.

I have read and been advised of common boarding ailments that may occur during boarding. I understand these protocols and the measures that will be taken should my pet become ill. I agree to pay all associated fees that may incur due to medical treatment provided by Muddy Creek Animal Care Center and/or Bulger Veterinary Hospital upon dismissal of my pet.

Please note: Dogs or cats with long and/or thick hair are more susceptible with matts. Brushing the matts out (de-matting) is difficult, time consuming and is painful and makes the pet at risk for injury. Matts can also lead to skin medical conditions if left ungroomed for long enough. De-matting prices are subject to change and depends on the severity and difficulty to complete. If de-matting is not possible or if it is not wanted the stylist will be unable to give your pet a haircut or bathing your pet may cause the matting to become worse especially with cast matting.

____ Please initial you are aware of our matting policy: Pets with severe matting must be shaved to the appropriate length please initial here if you wish to have your matted pet groomed.

____ Please initial you are aware of our safety policy: Safety is Muddy Paws Salon's main priority for pets and staff alike. Senior pets/pets with health issues may become stressed during the grooming process. Other pets may become nervous which may cause aggression. Pets may be groomed or not by the groomers/supervisor's discretion.

____ Please initial you are aware of our flea or tick policy: Muddy Creek strives to be a flea free facility. If your pet has any fleas, they will be given a flea bath at your expense of an additional $10.00. Ticks will be removed at an additional charge depending on how many are removed and you will be notified if any are found at pick up.
